YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOUR SHARES BE REPRESENTED REGARDLESS OF THE NUMBER YOU OWN. EVEN IF YOU PLAN TO BE PRESENT, YOU ARE URGED TO COMPLETE, SIGN, DATE, AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY PROMPTLY IN THE ENVELOPE PROVIDED. IF YOU ATTEND THE MEETING, YOU MAY VOTE EITHER IN PERSON OR BY PROXY. ANY PROXY GIVEN MAY BE REVOKED BY YOU IN WRITING OR IN PERSON AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO THE EXERCISE THEREOF.

GLOBE BANCORP, INC.
PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

April 22, 2003

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to the holders of common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"), of Globe Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), which acquired all of the Common Stock of Globe Homestead Savings Bank (the "Bank") in connection with the conversion of the Bank from a federally chartered mutual savings bank to a federally chartered stock savings bank on July 9, 2001 (the "Conversion").

Proxies are being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("Annual Meeting") to be held at the Company's office located at 4051 Veterans Boulevard, Suite 100, Metairie, Louisiana 70002 on Tuesday, April 22, 2003 at 11:00 a.m., Central Time, and at any adjournment thereof for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to stockholders on or about March 21, 2003.

Each proxy solicited hereby, if properly signed and returned to the Company and not revoked prior to its use, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. If no contrary instructions are given, each proxy received will be voted for each of the matters described herein and, upon the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, in accordance with the best judgment of the persons appointed as proxies.

Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by (a) filing with the Secretary of the Company written notice thereof (Saxon J. Toca, Secretary, Globe Bancorp, Inc., 4051 Veterans Boulevard, Suite 100, Metairie, Louisiana, 70002); (b) submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (c) appearing at the Annual Meeting and giving the Secretary notice of his or her intention to vote in person. Proxies solicited hereby may be exercised only at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof and will not be used for any other meeting.

VOTING AND REQUIRED VOTES

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 7, 2003 (the "Voting Record Date") will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Voting Record Date, there were 277,000 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding, and the Company had no other class of equity securities outstanding. Each share of Common Stock outstanding is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting on each matter properly presented at the Annual Meeting.

Directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast with a quorum present. A quorum consists of stockholders representing, either in person or by proxy, a majority of the outstanding Common Stock entitled to vote at the meeting. Abstentions are considered in determining the presence of a quorum but will not affect the plurality vote required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total votes present in person or by proxy is required to ratify the appointment of the independent auditors. Under rules of the New York Stock Exchange applicable to broker-dealers, the election of directors and the ratification of the auditors are considered "discretionary" items upon which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their clients if such clients have not furnished voting instructions and for which there will not be "broker non-votes."

INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR, DIRECTORS WHOSE TERMS CONTINUE AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Election of Directors

The Bylaws of the Company presently provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of eight members, and the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company presently provide that the Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes as nearly equal in number as possible. The members of each class are to be elected for a term of three years or until their successors are elected and qualified. One class of directors is to be elected annually. There are no arrangements or understandings between the Company and any person pursuant to which such person has been elected as a director, and no director is related to any other director or executive officer of the Company by blood, marriage or adoption, other than John L. Gohres, Jr. and Robert J. Gohres who are brothers.

Unless otherwise directed, each proxy executed and returned by a stockholder will be voted for the election of the nominees for director listed below. If any person named as a nominee should be unable or unwilling to stand for election at the time of the Annual Meeting, the proxies will nominate and vote for any replacement nominee recommended by the Board of Directors. At this time, the Board of Directors knows no reason why any of the nominees listed below may not be able to serve as director if elected.

The following tables present information concerning nominees for director and the directors whose terms continue, including each such person's tenure as a director of the Company and the Bank. Ages are reflected as of December 31, 2002.

Stockholder Nominations

Article 6.F of the Company's Articles of Incorporation governs nominations for election to the Board of Directors and requires all such nominations, other than those made by the Board, to be made at a meeting of stockholders called for the election of directors, and only by a stockholder who has complied with the notice provisions in that section. Stockholder nominations must be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received at, the principal executive offices of the Company not later than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the initial mailing of proxy materials by the Company in connection with the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders. Article 6.F also requires the notice of stockholder nominations to provide certain information. No nominations were received by the Company in connection with the Annual Meeting.

Board Meeting and Committees

The Board of Directors of the Company met twelve times during the year ended December 31, 2002. Directors of the Company receive no fees from the Company for attending Board of Directors meetings or committee meetings. The Board of Directors has established a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee, both as described below. The Board of Directors of the Company does not have any separate executive or nominating committees. No director of the Company attended fewer than 75% in the aggregate of the meetings of the Board of Directors held during 2002 and the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board on which he or she served during the year.

The Audit Committee reviews the scope and results of the audit performed by the Company's independent auditors and reviews with management and such independent auditors the Company's system of internal control and audit. The Audit Committee also reviews all examination and other reports by federal banking regulators. The members of the Audit Committee for both the Company and the Bank are Albert E. Briede, III and Robert J. Gohres. The Audit Committee met four times during 2002. Messrs. Briede, and R. Gohres are independent as defined in the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.'s listing standards. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter, a copy of which was attached to the Proxy Statement for the 2002 Annual Meeting. The Audit Committee reviews and reassesses the adequacy of the charter annually.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing management compensation policies and procedures and reviewing executive compensation. The Compensation Committee consists of Messrs. Briede, R. Gohres and Toca, III.

The full Board of Directors of the Company serves as the Nominating Committee and met once during 2002 in such capacity. Although the Board of Directors will consider nominees recommended by stockholders, it has not actively solicited recommendations from stockholders of the Company.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors of the Bank are held once a month and special meetings of the Board of Directors are held from time-to-time as needed. There were 12 meetings of the Board of Directors of the Bank held during 2002. No director attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors of the Bank during 2002 and the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board on which the director served during such year.

Director's Compensation

Each director of the Bank receives $450 for each regular meeting of the Board of Directors, with the exception of Mrs. Mae Leaveau, Mrs. Madeleine Richard and Mr. Thomas Exnicios who do not receive a fee. Directors are paid for excused absences from Board meetings.

Executive Officers

The Company and the Bank do not have any executive officers who are not directors.

Unless otherwise indicated, the named beneficial owner has sole voting power and sole investment power with respect to the indicated shares.
- (2) The Globe Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership Plan Trust ("Trust") was established pursuant to the Globe Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership Plan ("ESOP") by an agreement between the Company and Thomas J. Exnicios, Robert J. Gohres and Albert E. Briede, III, who act as trustees of the plan ("Trustees"). As of the Voting Record Date, 21,089 shares of Common Stock held in the Trust were unallocated and 3,244 shares had been allocated to the accounts of participating employees. The Trustees must vote the allocated shares held in the ESOP in accordance with the instructions of the participating employees. Under the terms of the ESOP, unallocated shares held in the ESOP will be voted by the ESOP Trustees in the same proportion for and against proposals to stockholders of the Company as participating employees actually vote shares of Common Stock which have been allocated to their accounts. The amount of Common Stock beneficially owned by each individual trustee or all directors and executive officers as a group does not include the unallocated shares held by the Trust. The total for all directors and executive officers as a group includes 2,694 shares allocated to the ESOP accounts of the three employee directors.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act, the Company's directors, officers and any persons holding more than 10% of the Common Stock are required to report their ownership of the Common Stock and any changes in that ownership to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") by specific dates. Based on representations of its directors and officers or copies of the reports that they have filed with the Commission and the NASD, the Company believes that all of these filing requirements were satisfied by the Company's directors and officers in the year ended December 31, 2002.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Summary Compensation Table

The Company does not pay separate compensation to its officers. The following table shows the compensation paid by the Bank to its President and Chief Executive Officer during the periods indicated. No executive officer of the Bank received total compensation in excess of $100,000 during 2002.

Name and Principal Position	Annual Compensation				All Other Compensation
	Year	Salary (1)	Bonus	Other (2)
Thomas J. Exnicios	2002	$75,000	$ --	$--	$11,517(3)
President and Chief	2001	$75,000	$2,500	$--	$10,410
Executive Officer	2000	$72,500	$6,750	$--	$ 2,385

- (1) Mr. Exnicios did not receive any director's fees in 2002, 2001 or 2000.
- (2) Annual compensation does not include amounts attributable to other miscellaneous benefits received by Mr. Exnicios. The costs to the Company of providing such benefits during 2002 did not exceed 10% of the salary and bonus paid to or accrued for the benefit of Mr. Exnicios.
- (3) Represents the fair market value on December 31, 2002 of a share of Common Stock, the date the shares were allocated, multiplied by the 765 shares allocated to the ESOP account of Mr. Exnicios.

Employment Agreements

The Company and the Bank (the "Employers") have each entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Thomas J. Exnicios. The Employers have agreed to employ the executive for a term of three years commencing December 18, 2001 in his current respective position. The agreements provide that Mr. Exnicios will initially be paid his current salary level of $75,000. The executive compensation and expenses shall be paid by the Company and the Bank in the same proportion as the time and services actually expended by the executive on behalf of each respective Employer. The employment agreements are reviewed annually.

Each of the employment agreements is terminable with or without cause by the Employers. The executive has no right to compensation pursuant to the employment agreements for any period after voluntary termination or after termination by the Employers for cause, disability or retirement. The agreements provide for certain benefits in the event of the executive's death. In the event that the executive terminates his employment because the Employer's either fail to comply with any material provision of the employment agreement or the employment agreement is terminated by the Employers other than for cause, disability, retirement or death or by the executive as a result of certain adverse actions, which are taken with respect to the executive's employment following a change in control of the Company, as defined, then the executive will be entitled to a cash severance amount equal to three times his average annual compensation for the last five calendar years (or for such shorter period that he has worked for the Company or the Bank) plus the continuation of certain miscellaneous fringe benefits, subject to reduction pursuant to Section 280G of the Code.

A change in control is generally defined in the employment agreements to include any change in control of the Company required to be reported under the federal securities laws, as well as (1) the acquisition by any person of 20% or more of the Company's outstanding voting securities and (2) a change in a majority of the directors of the Company during any three-year period without the approval of at least two-thirds of the persons who were directors of the Company at the beginning of such period.

Each employment agreement provides that, in the event that any of the payments to be made thereunder or otherwise upon termination of employment are deemed to constitute "parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, then such payments and benefits received thereunder shall be reduced by the amount which is the minimum necessary to result in the payments not exceeding three times the recipient's average annual compensation from the Employer which was includable in the recipient's gross income during the most recent five taxable years (the "Section 280G Limit"). As a result, none of the severance payments will be subject to a 20% excise tax, and the Employers will be able to deduct such payments as compensation expense for federal income tax purposes.

Although the above-described employment agreements could increase the cost of any acquisition of control of the Company, management of the Company does not believe that the terms thereof will have a significant anti-takeover effect.

Indebtedness of Management and Related Party Transactions

In the ordinary course of business, the Bank makes loans available to its directors, officers and employees. Such loans are made in the ordinary course of business on the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as comparable loans to other borrowers. It is the belief of management that these loans neither involve more than the normal risk of collectibility nor present other unfavorable features. At December 31, 2002, the Bank had nine loans outstanding to directors and executive officers of the Bank, or members of their immediate families. These loans totaled approximately $749,000 or 13.5% of the Company's total stockholders' equity at December 31, 2002.

Messrs. John Gohres, Jr. and Robert Gohres, directors of the Company, are owners of an insurance agency through which the Company obtains its insurance coverage. The Company paid $18,663 to this agency in 2002.

Equity Compensation Plan Information

The Company does not have any securities to be issued under any equity compensation plans approved or not approved by security holders.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with management. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees." The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, and has discussed with the Company's independent accountant, the independent accountant's independence. Based on the review and discussions referred to above in this report, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for fiscal year 2002 for filing with the Commission.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Board of Directors of the Company has appointed Roth Murphy Sanford L.L.P., independent certified public accountants, to perform the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2003, and has further directed that the selection of auditors be submitted for ratification by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting.

The Company has been advised by Roth Murphy Sanford L.L.P. that neither that firm nor any of its associates have any relationship with the Company or its subsidiaries other than the usual relationship that exists between independent certified public accountants and clients. Roth Murphy Sanford L.L.P. will have one or more representatives at the Annual Meeting who will have an opportunity to make a statement, if they so desire, and who will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Fees

The aggregate amount of fees billed by Roth Murphy Sanford L.L.P. for its audit of our annual financial statements for 2002 and for its review of our unaudited interim financial statements included in reports filed by the Company under the 1934 Act during 2002 was $26,400.

Other services include $2,831 for services relating to the 2002 verification of loans for the Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas and $2,500 relating to the preparation of consolidated federal incomes tax returns and other tax services.

The audit committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of Roth Murphy Sanford L.L.P., as independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2003.

Directors and executive officers of the Company and the Bank may solicit proxies personally or by telephone without additional compensation.
